CORAM: SMT. NISHITA MHATRE, J.

DATED: 28TH SEPT., 2007.

P.C.:

. Civil Application No. 2275 of 2007 has been filed by the original petitioner seeking extension of time to deposit the back wages as directed by this Court when the petition was admitted on 13.4.2007. This Court had granted the interim relief subject to the condition that the petitioners deposit the entire back wages within six weeks from the date of the order. This order was not complied by the petitioners and on 21.9.2007 they have deposited Rs.1,43,000/- in this Court pursuant to the order dated 13.4.2007. However, the balance amount of Rs.1,87,000/- is yet to be deposited. It is prayed that instalments be granted to the petitioners so that they will be able to deposit the entire amount.

2. Civil Application No.2273 of 2007 has been filed by the respondent contending that since the interim order has not been complied, the conditional order be vacated. It is also prayed that the order of the School Tribunal should be implemented since the petitioners have failed to comply with the order of this Court dated 13.4.2007.

3. In my view, the following order would meet the ends of justice:

O R D E R

(i) The petitioners i.e. the applicants in C.A.No.2275 of 2007 shall deposit the balance amount by two instalments, the first of which shall be payable on 15.10.2007 and the second shall be payable on 15.11.2007. No further extension of time will be granted.

(ii) The first instalment shall be of Rs.1,00,000/- and the balance amount shall be payable in the second instalment.

(iii) In the event either of the instalments are not deposited in this Court within the stipulated time, the order of the School Tribunal shall be implemented.

(iv) Civil applications disposed of.
